Dott. Umberto Nordio
Chairman
Alitalia
Palazzo Alitalia

Dear Dott. Nordio:

We found it most enjoyable visiting and working with you and your associates last week. Our firm is indeed pleased to assist you and Alitalia in U.S. - Italian aviation bilateral discussions and other related matters, including, of course, representation before executive and regulatory agencies of the United States.

As we discussed, our firm will bill you in October 1983 for the fees incurred by us up to that time and again in January 1984 for the remainder of 1983 fees. As we indicated to you, our hourly rates will be $200 for G. Joseph Minetti and $175 for Henry Cashen. For any other attorneys from our firm who may become involved in those projects which we will undertake for you, we will bill you for their regular hourly rates which we anticipate will be less than ours. As you know, we have hired Mr. John Meadows as an independent consultant for economic purposes. His time will be billed at the rate of $75 per hour. We will also invoice you on a regular monthly basis for out-of-pocket disbursements (such as travel expenses, long distance telephone calls and telex charges) incurred in connection with our representation.

As always, should you have any questions, please call and we look forward to working with you and the other officers and representatives of Alitalia. Our best personal regards to you and your associates.

Sincerely,

Hy C. Cashen

Dear Ms. Lucas:

It has come to our attention that there are certain inaccuracies in the current Department of Justice public records concerning individuals connected with Dickstein, Shapiro & Morin who are short-form registrants under the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended ("FARA"). By this letter we are requesting that these inaccuracies, which are listed below, be corrected:

1. David I. Shapiro, Andrew P. Miller, Leigh S. Ratiner and Rebecca L. Wright were registered as short-form registrants because of services performed on behalf of the Government of Liberia. The firm's connection with the Government of Liberia ceased on August 6, 1980, and these individuals' short-form registrations should be terminated as of that date. (The termination of the firm's representation of the Government of Liberia was reported in its FARA Supplemental Statement for the period ended December 7, 1980.)
2. Richard Littell, a former partner in the firm and a short-form registrant, withdrew from the firm on December 1, 1980, and his short-form registration as a partner of Dickstein, Shapiro & Morin should be terminated as of that date. (Mr. Littell's withdrawal was also reported in the firm's FARA Supplemental Statement for the period ended December 7, 1980.)

Furthermore, we request that the short-form registration of Walter J. Walvick, who is a partner of Dickstein, Shapiro & Morin, be terminated as of June 7, 1983. Mr. Walvick's activities on behalf of foreign principals represented by the firm have consisted solely of the rendering of legal services exempt from registration under Section 3(g) of FARA, and it is not anticipated that he will in the future perform any services on behalf of foreign principals requiring short-form registration under FARA. If at any time the nature of Mr. Walvick's activities should include "political activities" on behalf of foreign principals represented by the firm, a new short-form registration statement will be filed.

Sincerely,

Rebecca L. Wright
